Since the emancipation business it has been almost NEW YORK LEDGER, abandoned by the whites, and some of the finest plantations and estates in the world are left without sale to be occupied by worthless man-umitted blacks. The city looks like a place that has been besieged and sacked, and was in the hands of the debris of the besieging army. Nearly all of the wealthy and intelligent classes have left and parted with their property for a it on account of the conduct of the free negroes, whose sole occupation ever since has been huckstering the fruits that grow on the tenth of its value, and in many cases abandoned wacated estates. The arrival of the steamer offered at one-fifth cash and balance at one, two and quality three years.

WROUGHT IRON TUNNELS .- The liability of and frequently causing destruction of life, has directed the attention of engineers to the practicability of tunnelling rivers for railroad purposes. This is a very expensive operation performed in the usual way; but we see by the Washington Union that Mr. John W. Cochran, SILKS! of New York, proposes to construct a tunnel of wrought iron, upon the same principle of making steam boilers and iron ships, without rivets, boils, or screws. Thus built upon dry land, it is launched like a ship, into the water, W E have now in store an infinite variety of DRESS the ends closed up to float it; while a channel has been previously prepared to receive it. may be floating about.
